From the desk of the President...

Happy New Year!

Another year is officially in the books. I don't know about the rest of you but it was definitely a different kind of year. A year where we saw more recovery workers than snow birds. I know there are still many displaced people, but business is looking more normalized now. Many of the businesses I visit have been busy with returning snow birds and their visiting families for the holidays. I think we have all noticed the increased traffic on the roads.

I hope these signs point to a good season for SW Florida. We need to capitalize on those that stayed away last year, introduce them to all that is new and exciting in our area. We should see an increased visitation of Downtown with Rooftop at Riverside opening soon. We need to show those new visitors that there are many reasons for them to return and frequent our Downtown businesses.

We will have our monthly meeting on Tuesday the 23rd at The Shangri-La Springs with a presentation from Arts Bonita and sponsored by Bonita Storage.

Hope to see you all there,
Mike Gibson

Meet your January Speaker

Arts Bonita

The Centers for the Arts Bonita Springs (Arts Bonita) is committed to enriching the lives of the community by providing opportunities for artistic expression, education, and appreciation. Arts Bonita has two campus locations-each dedicated to the visual or performing arts.

The Visual Arts Center, 26100 Old 41 Road, is comprised of multiple fine art galleries and fully equipped art studios, a gift store, and beautiful sculpture gardens. A variety of classes are offered at this center, including painting, drawing, pottery, and sculpture.

The Performing Arts Center, 10150 Bonita Beach Road, is home to the 400-seat Hinman Auditorium and the 200-seat Moe Auditorium & Film Center. At this diverse center, patrons can enjoy an ongoing array of live music, theatre, comedy, film, lectures, and youth & adult classes in art, music, theatre, and dance.
